

Cluster of Laslett

Patient information
Name:
Age:
Gender:
Medical history:
Primary complaint:
Instructions for clinicians
• Apply pressure gradually and ensure the patient's safety.
• Accurately note the test outcomes to confirm the diagnosis.
• Stop testing once 2/4 of tests are positive or proceed if necessary.
• Consider referral for fluoroscopy-guided nerve block if pain persists or further confirmation is needed.
Provocative tests
Distraction test
Outcome:	Positive	Negative
Thigh thrust test
Outcome:	Positive	Negative
Compression test
Outcome:	Positive	Negative
Sacral thrust test
Outcome:	Positive	Negative
Gaenslen's test (optional, supplementary)
Outcome:	Positive	Negative

Evaluation

Test positives:

Distraction

Thigh thrust

Compression

Sacral thrust

Gaenslen's

Diagnosis (Cluster of Laslett)

Positive sacroiliac joint dysfunction:

Further testing required:

NotesClinician information

Name:

Credentials:

Signature:

Date: