Headache Impact Test (HIT-6)

Name: Date of assessment:		Gender: _	Gender:
		Contact information:
		IT-6) questionnaire was de cause of headaches. To co
1. When you have hea	adaches, how often	is the pain severe?
Never	Rarely	Sometimes	Very often	Always
2. How often do heada school or social act		ility to do usual daily act	ivities including househ	nold work, work,
Never	Rarely	Sometimes	O Very often	Always
3. When you have a he	eadache, how often	do you wish you could	lie down?
Never	Rarely	Sometimes	O Very often	Always
4. In the past 4 weeks, headaches?	how often have yo	ou felt too tired to do wor	k or daily activities bec	ause of your
Never	Rarely	Sometimes	Very often	Always
5. In the past 4 weeks,	how often have yo	ou felt fed up or irritated	because of your headad	ches?
Never	Rarely	Sometimes	Very often	Always
6. In the past 4 weeks,	how often did hea	daches limit your ability	to concentrate on work	or daily activities?
Never	Rarely	Sometimes	O Very often	Always
Never (6 points each):	+ Rarely (8 points each):		+ Sometimes (10 points each):
		+ Always (13 points e

Scoring and interpretation

To calculate the total score, sum the points for all six questions. The total score will range from 36 to 78 points. The four headache impact severity categories are:

· Little or no impact: 49 or less

• Some impact: 50-55

• Substantial impact: 56-59

• Severe impact: 60-78

Reference

Yang, M., Rendas-Baum, R., Varon, S. F., & Kosinski, M. (2011). Validation of the Headache Impact Test (HIT-6™) across episodic and chronic migraine. Cephalalgia: An International Journal of Headache, 31(3), 357–367. https://doi.org/10.1177/0333102410379890