

Lhermitte Sign Test

I. Patient information
Name: Benjamin Graves	Age: 34
Gender: <input checked="" type="radio"/> Male <input type="radio"/> Female <input type="radio"/> Other:
Date: June 4, 2024	Medical record number: 123456
II. Procedure
<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Have the patient sit up straight or stand up straight</li><li>2. Ask them to flex the neck, leaning the head forward and down as far as it can go while keeping the back straight.</li></ol>
III. Results
<input type="radio"/> Negative: No discomfort or tingling sensation. <input checked="" type="radio"/> Positive: Patient experiences a tingling sensation or pins-and-needles going down the spine, possibly going through the extremities, while they are near the end of their neck's range of motion.
IV. Additional notes
Patient reports that his whole arms up to his fingertips start getting numb and start feeling like static by the end of his range of motion.	