

Washington State Parenting Plan

I. Introduction

This Parenting Plan is entered into by _____ and _____ in relation to the care and custody of _____ born on _____.

II. Residential schedule

1. Regular schedule _____ will reside with _____ from Monday to Wednesday each week and with _____ from Thursday to Sunday each week.

2. Holiday schedule _____ will spend Thanksgiving with _____ in odd-numbered years and with _____ in even-numbered years.

_____ will spend Christmas Eve and Christmas Day with Parent B in odd-numbered years and with Parent A in even-numbered years.

3. Vacation schedule

Each parent is allowed two weeks of uninterrupted vacation time with _____ each year, provided they give the other parent at least 30 days' notice.

III. Decision making

Parent A and Parent B will share joint decision-making for matters of education, health care, and religious activities.

IV. Dispute resolution

In case of disputes regarding this Parenting Plan or issues related to _____, the parents will first attempt to resolve it between themselves. If unable to resolve, they will seek the assistance of a mutually agreed-upon mediator before involving the court.

V. Limits on a parent's relationship with the children

Neither parent is currently subject to any limitations on their relationship with the child.

VI. Transportation responsibilities

Parent A and Parent B will equally share the responsibility of transporting _____ between their residences.

VII. Modification on parenting plan

This Parenting Plan can be modified if substantial changes occur in the circumstances of the child or the nonmoving party and the modification is in the best interest of _____.

This Parenting Plan is made in the best interest of _____, considering their age, mental and physical health, and established relationships with _____ and _____.

VIII. Signature

Parent A

Name:

Signature:

Date:

Parent B

Name:

Signature:

Date: